

Paula Witt is Senior Manager, State Government Affairs. She assists the state government affairs team in pursuing its advocacy goals and in representing the generics and biosimilars industry across the country.

Paula comes to AAM from George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School, where she served as Director of Judicial Education in the Law & Economics Center. She was previously Director of Legislative and Regulatory Information at StateScape and the American Council of Life Insurers.

Paula holds a BS in Chemistry from Duquesne University and a JD from George Mason School of Law.

Paula Witt

Senior Manager, State Government Affairs
Association for Accessible Medicines (AAM)